Rousham Class School Trip to the Oxford Literary Festival Sheldonian Theatre, Oxford on Friday 27th March 2020

Dear Parents

Rousham Class will be going to the Sheldonian Theatre in Oxford to attend part of The Oxford Literary Festival.

Blue Peter Book Award winner Onjali Q Raúf will be talking about The Boy at the Back of the Class and her new book The Star Outside My Window and about the experiences that have inspired her. The Boy at the Back of the Class portrays the refugee crisis through the eyes of a child. Told with heart, humour and hope, it is a touching story about friendship and children's power to change the world. Her new book, The Star Outside My Window, also celebrates the power of hope and resilience. It should be an exciting, interesting and inspiring session.

We will leave school at 12.00 and return to school at 3.00. Children need to wear school uniform and bring a warm coat. Children can order a school lunch for the day at morning registration; they will lunch early before they leave.

We are asking for a contribution of £10.00 per child to cover the cost of entrance and travel. Please complete your consent confirmation and contribution via ParentPay. All payments for the trip need to be completed by Friday 20th March 2020.

Yours faithfully

Mrs Barnett
Rousham Class Teacher
