

Tips for accessing Powerpoint presentations that include sound

Click on the three dots circled above and select Open in New Window

Then click on the three dots again and select download.

It will appear here in the bottom left of the screen. The presentation should then open in Powerpoint.

To play the presentation click on this button. Hover over the picture and a play button will appear. Click that to play the sound.